

Ryan's Spiritual Rules of Order

1. You must be personally dedicated to holding the spiritual consciousness for the entire group, no matter what any outward appearance may be.
2. You must own, recognize, embrace and verbalize your fears.
3. You must be willing to speak your microscopic truth with kindness, compassion, dignity and love.
4. You must assume that everyone is doing the best they can at this and every moment.
5. You must assume that everything that is occurring is for the highest good of everyone whether or not you see HOW it is for the highest good at this moment.
6. You must assume that everyone is operating from a position of love, never from a position of mal-intent, even if that love is being obscured by fear.
7. You must remember that everything is unfolding in Divine Timing.
